

Who is "GR" REDDY

GR Reddy is renowned for his dedication to family, friends, and a forward-thinking approach. An avid global networker, traveler, and sports enthusiast, he has been promoting the idea that "Network is Networth" since 2002. Affectionately known as "GR," a name synonymous with "HR" in India, he is a pioneering HRpreneur who took his company public on the National Stock Exchange of India, and his innovative contributions to HR have been immortalized in textbooks for HR students across the country.

Often referred to as the "Father of SME HR" within Indian HR circles, GR Reddy has been a driving force in the startup ecosystem since 2002, working closely with both state and central governments to shape startup policies and the human resource landscape. His expertise has helped global startups from over 150 countries leverage Indian talent, with some of these companies now ranking among the Fortune 100.

A yoga enthusiast since 1977, GR Reddy also leads online workshops for working professionals. His commitment to helping students is evident in his book "1st Job" and his widespread educational sessions, which have benefited over 100,000 individuals. As a regular columnist in one of India's largest daily newspapers, he continues to influence and guide aspiring professionals.

Together with his wife, Praveena, GR Reddy has been a steadfast supporter of sports, particularly in encouraging their daughter's full-time sports career. Their efforts have contributed to building a new sports ecosystem in India. Their son who is currently pursuing "Physics" and would like to contribute to a cause connecting Medicine, Engineering with Physics for better health of humans in future. Today, they serve as investors, mentors, and advisors to numerous HR and sports businesses, dedicating their lives to volunteer work, supporting students entering the corporate world, sponsoring education for the underprivileged, promoting girl child education, and enhancing the sports ecosystem. Their ultimate life goal is to use sports as a means to unite the world.

Short Bio:

G R Reddy : Known as "GR" for "HR", is a Founder & Builder and his promoted Husys Consulting Ltd along with Praveena Gundlapally became the first HR Company listed on NSE EMERGE in 2016. A sports enthusiast turned to be a Sports Dad in encouraging India's Best Rhythmic Gymnast by helping Meghana Gundlapally to achieve her childhood dream to "Play for India".

A Global Networker worked with more than 70 countries HR Companies in collaborating and promoting global People business. He has pioneered building Global Remote Workforce, Employer of Records (EOR), Outplacement & HR Function Outsourcing for over 3500 companies. His expertise span 25+ Industries in helping the Business owners and Entrepreneurs in transforming their organizations. He helped more than 200 International Organizations access Talent in India including some of them establishing their Capability Centre's.

He authored "1st Job" to support the College to Corporate journey for many students. He also been a regular columnist in one of India's Largest Daily newspaper for over 7 years and also regular TV live shows in guiding millions of youth in their career journey.

Today, GR supports many HR, SME's & Sports businesses as investor, mentor and advisor in creating Global Impact and SME Listing. His new initiative "HRPreneurship Club" encourages through meetup of HR & HR Technology startups and helping create value through collaboration with global HR Companies.